

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Friday, January 26, 2018

RACE 1:

7 – Offshore Trip
5 – Captain Kitt
8 – Diplomatic Shaft

SELECTIONS: 7-5-8-1

RACE 2:

6 – West Coast Miss
7 – Dancing Noelle
2 – Fabriana

SELECTIONS: 6-7-2-1

RACE 3:

2 – Galileo's Affair
6 – Jubilant
5 – Rocket Queen

SELECTIONS: 2-6-5-4

RACE 4:

1 – Creative Talent
5 – Kabuki
6 – Miss Stalwart

SELECTIONS: 1-5-6-4

RACE 5:

1 – Shootist
4 – Midnighonbroadway
2 – Eye of the Lion

SELECTIONS: 1-4-2-5

RACE 6:

2 – Global Entry
4 – Songeur
3 – Barney Rebel

SELECTIONS: 2-4-3-8

RACE 7:

5 – Hope's Roar
6 – Swapl
10 – Undertherain

SELECTIONS: 5-6-10-4

RACE 8:

1 – Ranger in Paradise
6 – Izzy the Warrior
4 – Small Fortune

SELECTIONS: 1-6-4-2

RACE 9:

1 – Purely Boy
3 – Sportscaster
8 – Adventist

SELECTIONS: 1-3-8-9

RACE 10:

2 – No Sweat
5 – Devilish Romance
1 – Driver's Girl

SELECTIONS: 2-5-1-7

RACE 11:

4 – Best of Enemies
11 – Pretty Shea D
8 – Christianity

SELECTIONS: 4-11-8-9

BEST BET: Race 4 - #1 Creative Talent

I'm not getting overly creative with this one and Creative Talent will be a short price, but I just think that she meets the right field and looks well meant. Dropping in class, she has a lot of natural speed and with apprentice Aby Medina in the saddle and the rail post, I have to imagine she'll control the pace and be the lone speed.

LONGSHOT: Race 11 - #4 Best of Enemies

In the wide open nightcap, I thought that this filly had license to improve second time out at a generous price. She makes her first start for trainer Jose Velez, who has done well during the Championship Meet, and picks up Edgard Zayas. She made a nice physical impression last time out and the blinkers go on today.