BEST BET: Race 3 - #5 Miss Munnings

After a roughly 7 month layoff, this mare came back and faced the boys, with a huge performance to be beaten by just a neck. She's incredibly consistent, and though she has to prove that she can repeat that performance from last time out, she's back in with her own gender. Miss Munnings has definitely proved that she has a lot of heart as well as talent.

LONGSHOT: Race 9 - #4 Newmans Fast Girl

This filly looked to have a big shot on paper last time out when dropping back in to maiden claiming company, but she had traffic trouble and met some tough contenders. She seems well-matched today, and picks up Tyler Gaffalione in the saddle. This daughter of Mineshaft appears to be getting better with more experience.
