BEST BET: Race 3: #2 Ecliptical My Way

Ecliptical My Way was beaten as the favorite last time, but was ultra game after setting quick fractions, and lost by just a neck. Now in the barn of Kathy Mongeon, this filly should be the speed of the speed in here with a good inside post, and looks to be meeting the right field.

LONGSHOT: Race 4: #5 Minaj

I’ll take a shot in this race for two year olds on the turf with Minaj, who does have experience on her side and will try the grass for the first time. Though she hasn’t run particularly well in her first two starts, I’ve been waiting for her to try the turf based on her physical appearance, and my wish will come true sooner rather than later. The surface switch and the addition of lasix should help her take a step forward at a good price.
