BEST BET: Race 2 - #4 Golden Kantharos

This colt was impressive to get the win off the layoff last time out. After getting the “non-winners-of-two” condition, he comes back in a logical spot for the same tag, and, most importantly, could be the controlling speed in here.

LONGSHOT: Race 6 - #6 McIlroy

His last few races have been disappointing, but this 8-year-old gelding will now be making his first start for trainer Lili Kurtinecz, and taking a slight drop in class. I’m thinking he meets the right field today, and hopefully will get a little more racing luck than he has had recently.
