BEST BET: Race 6 - #8 Devise

After a tough beat last time out to be second, Devise was flattered when Love Conquers, who beat him, came back with a huge finish in stakes competition next time out. This horse seems to be rounding into great form for the Mark Casse barn.

LONGSHOT: Race 4 - #2 Lonesome Palm

Lonesome Palm definitely has some dirtied up form, but that will certainly make her a good price come post time. She has a nice closing kick in a race with plenty of early speed, and her most recent start was a troubled third place finish on the turf as a big longshot. Horses for trainer Eduardo Azpurua Jr. tend to get better with seasoning, as well.
