BEST BET: Race 9 - #6 Devilish Romance

In this race with a lot of early speed, I was looking for a closer who was in strong form. Devilish Romance clearly stands out on the page. First off the claim for Peter Walder last-out, this filly ran a very strong second and should be able to move forward yet again.

LONGSHOT: Race 4 - #1 Hy Dandy

This 5-year-old gelding is not the most consistent runner, but he has some good things going for him here. If you cross off his most recent race, the two starts prior to that were very strong, with one of them being a win. Additionally, his late-running style will be very much to his benefit in here, where there is plenty of speed signed on.
