BEST BET: Race 7 - #2 Archer Road

The first time I saw this horse, I hoped there would be a day when I could bet him back on turf. He's since switched to the grass, but he's taken a few starts to find his feet and has faced very tough competition. Compromised by an outside post last time, he's drawn better here and should be primed for a big one.

LONGSHOT: Race 1 - #6 McFly

Stanley Gold, Arindel Farm, and Emisael Jaramillo have been having a ton of success lately. In fact, the trainer/jockey combination is batting at 29% over the past 90 days. Last time out, McFly was too far back and pushed very wide by another horse when trying to get involved. Should be closer today.
