

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Sunday, June 11, 2017

RACE 1:

1 – Irish Star
3 – The Blonde
4 – Search for Sammy
SELECTIONS: 1-3-4-6

RACE 2:

5 – Majestic Heir
7 – American Tzar
1 – Hy Dandy
SELECTIONS: 5-7-1-4

RACE 3:

6 – Flying Harmony
3 – Righteous Ruth
7 – Magic Mischief
SELECTIONS: 6-3-7-4

RACE 4:

1 – Earth
2 – Seattle Treasure
4 – Pocket Book
SELECTIONS: 1-2-4-6

RACE 5:

4 – Thinking of Mom
5 – Indian Chaser
7 – Stormin Charlotte
SELECTIONS: 4-5-7-6

RACE 6:

2 – Run Victoria Run
1 – Taco Wayne's Shot
10 - Venezuelantreasure
SELECTIONS: 2-1-10-3

RACE 7:

4 – Catch That Cat
6 – Princess Akris
7 – Planet Rock
SELECTIONS: 4-6-7-2

RACE 8:

2 – Beaukati
7 – Adagio
5 – Matthews Mystery
SELECTIONS: 2-7-5-1

RACE 9:

8 – Ship Lock
1 – Knock Em Out Roy
6 – Santiaguero
SELECTIONS: 8-1-6-5

BEST BET: Race 3 - #6 Flying Harmony

This filly debuted on the turf going a mile and on sixteenth, and was beaten just by a head. Todd Pletcher has his go-to jock Tyler Gaffalione in the saddle today, and the pair have been a very potent combination lately. There is every reason to believe that Flying Harmony will improve in her second career start.

LONGSHOT: Race 1 - #4 Search for Sammy

After a roughly nine month layoff, the most recent race for Search for Sammy was not a pretty sight. However, this filly had a troubled beginning last time out and trainer Steve Dwoskin's horses do seem to improve second off the bench. There is some nice pedigree there as well, and Luca Panici has the call.