BEST BET: Race 6 - #1 Returntasenda

This filly was incredibly game last time out, beaten just a nose right here at GPW after shipping in from Laurel. Making her second start locally, she should meet the right field today and use her natural speed from an inside post to get the win photo this time.

LONGSHOT: Race 2 - #7 Clouded Appeal

In a race that appears to have quite a bit of early speed signed on, a true closer such as Clouded Appeal could make a dent at a nice price. Her most recent 5 furlong turf race (two starts back) was against tougher competition, and she put forth a solid performance. Jockey Sammy Camacho has been riding in good form, as well.
