BEST BET: Race 4 - #2 Browns Gap

With a switch to the dirt last time out, this gelding delivered and won by open lengths. While he is stepping up in class, it was quite the impressive victory, and he also warrants the attention of Joel Rosario, who picks up the mount. His natural early speed should be his best weapon in here.

LONGSHOT: Race 6 - #10 Court Central

After a long layoff and a drop in class, this filly ran a solid race in mid-December to dust off the cobwebs. Now second off the bench, a move that is very productive for this barn (20% average on the turf), there is every reason to believe she will take yet another step forward.
