

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Wednesday, December 26, 2018

RACE 1:

8 - Johnny Tickets
10 - Hollywood Overdogs
7 - Never Bad

SELECTIONS: 8-10-7-6

RACE 2:

3 - Eclipsed Moon
7 - Outside Lookin In
5 - Fightinirishtabit

SELECTIONS: 3-7-5-8

RACE 3:

7 - Kelly Tough
1 - Overzealous
4 - Park Ridge Benny

SELECTIONS: 7-1-4-2

RACE 4:

6 - Mo Moxie
2 - Underestimate
3 - The Gospel of John

SELECTIONS: 6-2-3-4

RACE 5:

5 - Fast Pass
4 - I Idolize You
1 - Gambler's Ghost

SELECTIONS: 5-4-1-2

RACE 6:

10 - Not Quite Ready
4 - Cabinet Pik
1 - Proquestor

SELECTIONS: 10-4-1-12

RACE 7:

6 - Cut to Order
1 - Tweet Kitten
9 - Squadron

SELECTIONS: 6-1-9-3

RACE 8:

8 - R Showgirl
4 - Magic Maker
7 - Cocktails or Candy

SELECTIONS: 8-4-7-6

RACE 9:

8 - Shes Dynamite
3 - Hera
7 - No Trespassing

SELECTIONS: 8-3-7-2

RACE 10:

4 - Rose M.
7 - Mija Bella
6 - Peggity

SELECTIONS: 4-7-6-5

RACE 11:

5 - Rulership
6 - More Mo
10 - Colin a Winner

SELECTIONS: 5-6-10-9

BEST BET: Race 9 - #8 Shes Dynamite

While she does not meet an easy field by any means, I think that this mare is far and above the one to beat given her running style. She looks on paper to be the controlling speed in here, and jockey Nik Juarez should be able to dictate the pace. She's stepping up in class, but won so impressively last time out at GPW that it looks like a vote of confidence that she is not in for a tag today.

LONGSHOT: Race 7 - #6 Cut to Order

Switching back to the turf and turning back in distance, my initial thought was that one mile might be a bit too short for Cut to Order, given that his last grass race was going a mile and a half. However, he is 4-for-9 at this distance with one second place finish. Trainer Armando de la Cerda reaches out for leading jockey Luis Saez and this gelding should get a perfect trip in here.