

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Wednesday, January 24, 2018

RACE 1:

8 – Wildcat Saint
10 – Smart Dude
5 – Sal's Jet

SELECTIONS: 8-10-5-2

RACE 2:

6 – Lawless Lady
4 – Somewhatoptimistic
5 – Bernarda

SELECTIONS: 6-4-5-2

RACE 3:

5 – Rogue Patriot
6 – Admirable Kiss
1 – Anonym

SELECTIONS: 5-6-1-7

RACE 4:

8 – Baylor
9 – Nicky's Warrior
4 – Rigel's Halo

SELECTIONS: 8-9-4-6

RACE 5:

2 – What's Inside
5 – R Secret Life
4 – Jalen Hurts

SELECTIONS: 2-5-4-1

RACE 6:

2 – Wahoowah
1 – Visions of You
4 – Two Seventy One

SELECTIONS: 2-1-4-8

RACE 7:

9 – Zigarch
7 – Just the Facts
4 – Appa

SELECTIONS: 9-7-4-8

RACE 8:

5 – Emperor John
4 – Blake's Lucky Star
9 – Stone Mountain

SELECTIONS: 5-4-9-8

RACE 9:

1 – Culture Carrier
8 – Arch Daddy
6 – Kulin Rock

SELECTIONS: 1-8-6-9

RACE 10:

6 – Milbra
2 – Solfatara
3 – Arcelor

SELECTIONS: 6-2-3-1

RACE 11:

7 – Nothins Free
3 – Dawn Lightning
4 – Rahy Momenta

SELECTIONS: 7-3-4-8

BEST BET: Race 4 - #8 Baylor

I'm giving her one more try. Beaten by just $\frac{3}{4}$ of a length last time out, this filly was saddled with an outside post and still managed to close and get second. She fits at the level, and also picks up Jose Ortiz. Here's hoping today is the day!

LONGSHOT: Race 9 - #8 Arch Daddy

Although just a recent maiden winner, it seems that this horse rally put everything together on the turf last time out for trainer Shug McGaughey. Facing winners for the first time, he meets a field where some of the top contenders have their own fair share of questions. Arch Daddy has been training well on the Payson Park turf course, and top jockey Luis Saez keeps the mount.