

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Wednesday, May 10, 2017

RACE 1:

1 – Kiss the Crown
4 – Poison Art
6 – Awesomendensome

SELECTIONS: 1-4-6-3

RACE 2:

2 – Sin Llorar
3 – Ultimate Dude
7 – Twistcat Candy

SELECTIONS: 2-3-7-6

RACE 3:

7 – Princess Akris
6 – Charlie's Secret
2 – Mare Irish Dancer

SELECTIONS: 7-6-2-4

RACE 4:

1 – R Paper Chaser
6 – Go Astray
3 – Minaj

SELECTIONS: 1-6-3-2

RACE 5:

9 – Vedelago (Ire)
4 – Fan Base
5 – Dominate

SELECTIONS: 9-4-5-3

RACE 6:

7 – Hammers Terror
5 – Charlie Mops
4 – Little Baltar

SELECTIONS: 7-5-4-6

RACE 7:

10 – Refer
3 – Blue Harbor
7 – Caribbean

SELECTIONS: 10-3-7-4

RACE 8:

2 – Cape Dynasty
1 – Arpinella
7 – Leroy's Image

SELECTIONS: 2-1-7-3

RACE 9:

4 – Bull Empress
1 – Walking Primrose (Fr)
6 – Atlantic Gusto

SELECTIONS: 4-1-6-7

BEST BET: Race 6: #7 Hammers Terror

Though Hammers Terror was beaten as the favorite in his last race, this 8-year-old gelding is now third off the layoff and making his first start off the claim in the barn of Mike Maker. A five time winner at this distance, Hammers Terror should be able to pick up the pieces of what promises to be a strong pace up front.

LONGSHOT: Race 7: #6 Boca Scuttlebutt

Third last out behind Refer – another horse in this field and a potential favorite – Boca Scuttlebutt is worthy of a second look if a good price. He is a strong closer, and though his last win came against much lesser company, his last two performances proved that he can be competitive in here. He'll have Emisael Jaramillo up.