BEST BET: Race 8 - #6 Bama Bound

Though turning back in distance to the 7/8, this 7-year-old gelding boasts 3 wins at this distance and always seems to excel at this level. After dropping last time, he got the win in very game fashion, and was claimed by Victor Barboza Jr. He should sit the perfect trip in here, as there does appear to be some speed in front of him.

LONGSHOT: Race 5 - #3 Gunship

This is the horse that I've been chasing for quite a while, and I'll give him one more shot in here because I know he will be a big price. Yes, he's already raced 8 times and is still a maiden, but he is turning back in distance and I feel this might be the best spot for him. He also drops down in class a notch again, and gets Luca Panici in the saddle. We'll see if today's the day for this good looking 2-year-old.
