

JASON BLEWITT'S

Race Analysis

Friday, October 11, 2019

RACE 1: 6 – 1 – 4 – 9

RACE 2: 6 – 7 – 5 – 2

RACE 3: 6 – 3 – 4 – 1

RACE 4: 1 – 5 – 4 – 2

RACE 5: 5 – 11 – 7 – 6

RACE 6: 2 – 3 – 1 – 7

RACE 7: 6 – 9 – 4 – 3

RACE 8: 4 – 1 – 7 – 6

Ready for More of J P's Delight

Eleven weeks have passed since J P's Delight ran a near hole in the wind over the Gulfstream Park main track. Friday, this Florida-bred filly gets tested for the goods in race 6, a state-bred restricted entry-level allowance at seven furlongs. J P's Delight, who won her $35,000 maiden claiming debut by more than nine lengths, goes from post 2 with jockey Jairo Rendon. It's pretty incredible looking at J P's Delight's winning margin – 9 ¼-lengths to the good back on July 26th over at Gulfstream Park – but also the way she gapped her five rivals out on the way to the winners' circle. No Se Vende, who would return to win her next start, was second best, a massive eight lengths in front of Miss Miami, who finished third by a comfortable margin of 4 ½ lengths. It's rare to see that much space and separation in a dirt race, especially at six furlongs, and J P's Delight caused it with her dominant performance. I am very anxious to see her return at her home base of GPW while up in class. Note J P's Delight sports just two published workouts over the last 80 days or so. Trainers Steve and Lillian Klesaris clearly have the main danger to J P's Delight in Flashing Diamond, a four-year-old Corfu filly that has put up some admirable numbers throughout her career. I've got nothing but respect for this former bottom-level $6,250 claiming filly that is 8-4-1 from 20 starts. She's also exiting her best effort yet, a daylight GP victory three weeks ago. She's sharp, has class and can stay seven furlongs. Jockey Paco Lopez has the call. Flashing Diamond is 1-1-0 from three starts over the GPW main track.

*Gulfstream Park West Day 8
Post Time: 1 p.m. ET*