

JASON BLEWITT'S

Race Analysis

Saturday, September 14, 2019

RACE 1: 7 – 10 – 2 – 8

RACE 2: 7 – 8 – 2 – 3

RACE 3: 10 – 5 – 9 – 2

RACE 4: 7 – 6 – 4 – 2

RACE 5: 5 – 3 – 1 – 8

RACE 6: 8 – 4 – 5 – 1

RACE 7: 8 – 4 – 9 – 6

RACE 8: 6 – 5 – 8 – 1

RACE 9: 8 – 10 – 6 – 3

RACE 10: 1 – 4 – 8 – 6

RACE 11: 11 – 6 – 2 – 8

RACE 12: 13 – 10 – 9 – 1

Turf Price Play: I've been waiting for Isadorable Aida to run back here at Gulfstream Park. Well, after nearly 80 days, that wait comes to an end this Saturday afternoon. I liked the overall turf form displayed by this Temple City filly late last year through the winter meet. I also believe trainer Rohan Crichton is adept at making good claims and more importantly, "moving up" new acquisitions. Crichton claimed Isadorable Aida on behalf of owner Robert Slack in late June and has taken his time bringing her back to the races; I also like his confidence in her considering he did not enter the filly in a claiming race Saturday. I like her to score beneath jockey Miguel Vasquez over Kelsey's Cross, the stake-faced three-year-old filly that steps up against older horses for trainer Patrick Biancone. Kelsey's Cross hasn't started since finishing third behind division leader Concrete Rose (who is on the sidelines for the remainder of 2019) in the inaugural Saratoga Oaks in early August. She was scratched out of the history rich Alabama (on dirt, obviously) the morning of the race. Speaking of Saratoga, the 11th race-bound Vow to Recover should be pretty happy to return to the comfy confines of Gulfstream Park. Vow to Recover will be favored in GP's featured 11th race, the $75,000 Miss Gracie. This Broken Vow filly has kept strong company on the season and is probably pretty excited about her SoFla return considering how good she was here through the first half of 2019. Trainer Elizabeth Dobles teams up with leading rider Edgard Zayas.