THE PEOPLE, PLACES AND HORSES BEHIND GULFSTREAM PARK'S STAKES RACES

Abundantia: Named after the Roman goddess of prosperity, abundance and good fortune. The race, a turf sprint for fillies and mares, is run near the end of the calendar year.

Any Limit: Trained by H. Allen Jerkens, Any Limit was a multiple graded stakes winner and was victorious in Gulfstream's 2007 and 2009 Hurricane Bertie (G3) and 2007 First Lady (G3).

Appleton: Named after breeder and owner Arthur Appleton, founder and late owner of Bridlewood Farm in Ocala. Appleton's family would later own an interest in Gulfstream Park.

Army Mule: Recognizes the Pennsylvania-bred that retired undefeated after three starts including an allowance victory at Gulfstream Park in his 2018 season debut and subsequent Carter Handicap (G1).

Canadian Turf: Inaugurated in 1967, the Canadian Turf, for 4-year-olds and up, is named in honor of Gulfstream's Canadian racing fans.

Captiva Island: Named for the island getaway just north of Sanibel Island on Florida's West Coast.

Carousel Club: Named after the popular open-air venue at Gulfstream where guests enjoy cocktails, food pop-ups and a view of the races. It has played host to the Pegasus and Florida Derby post-position draws as well as Pegasus entertainment.

Cash Run: Trained by D. Wayne Lukas, Cash Run won the 1999 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (G1) at Gulfstream and returned the following year to win the Davona Dale (G2) and Bonnie Miss (G2).

Christophe Clement: Previously run as the La Prevoyante, starting in 2026 the Clement was renamed to honor the late trainer of 2,576 career winners including six in the La Prevoyante.

Colonel Liam: The multiple Grade 1 winner, trained by Todd Pletcher, won consecutive Pegasus World Cup Invitational Turf (G1) races in 2021-22.

Cutler Bay: The town of Cutler Bay is 40 miles south of Gulfstream Park.

Dania Beach: Named after the city five miles north of Gulfstream Park. The race was inaugurated in 2009.

Davona Dale: Named for the 1979 champion 3-year-old filly that was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985, won 11 of 18 starts, was a multiple Grade 1 winner including the Kentucky Oaks (G1), and won Gulfstream's 1979 Bonnie Miss (G3).

Florida Derby: Celebrating its 75th running in 2026, the Florida Derby has established itself as the leading prep race for the Triple Crown races. The Derby was the first $100,000 stakes race in Florida and has become one of South Florida's biggest sports events of the winter season.

Fort Lauderdale: Inaugurated in 1947 and named after the city approximately 14 miles north, the turf event for older horses has served as a prep recently for the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational (G1).

Forward Gal: The 1970 2-year-old champion filly, Forward Gal won a dozen races including the Grade 1 Alabama, Mother Goose, Spinaway and Gazelle.

Fountain of Youth: Named after the legendary spring linked to Ponce de Leon in St. Augustine, the race has become a major prep for the spring classics.

Fred Hooper: Named after the pioneering owner and breeder who won the 1945 Kentucky Derby with Hoop Jr., bred 115 stakes winners, and formed the national Thoroughbred Owners' and Breeders Association and Florida Thoroughbred Owners' and Breeders' Association.

Ghostzapper: The 2024 Horse of the Year, Ghostzapper was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2012. The son of Awesome Again won the 2004 Breeders' Cup Classic and ended his career in May of 2005 with six consecutive victories, four in Grade 1 events.

Ginger Brew: Canada's 2008 3-year-old filly champion, Ginger Brew won the 2008 Calder Oaks and raced five times at Gulfstream while winning six races and placing in 13 of 15 races.

Gulfstream Park Oaks: The companion race to the Florida Derby for 3-year-old fillies, the Oaks was first run in 1971 and serves as a prep for the Kentucky Oaks.

H. Allen Jerkens Handicap: Named after the Hall of Fame trainer known as 'the Chief,' who won more than 200 stakes and wintered at Gulfstream. He first arrived at Gulfstream in 1947.

Harlan's Holiday: Named after the winner of the 2002 Florida Derby (G1) and 2003 Donn Handicap (G1, now Pegasus World Cup Invitational). The two-turn dirt event for 3-year-olds and up now serves as a prep for the Pegasus World Cup. The race was first contested in 2011.

Herecomesthebride: The daughter of Al Hattab, trained by Jimmy Cross Jr., won 12 of 16 starts including Gulfstream's 1977 Bonnie Miss and Hialeah's Columbiana (G3) and Poinciana.

Holy Bull: Inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2001, Holy Bull was 1994 Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old colt. Owned and trained by Jimmy Croll Jr., Holy Bull won 13 of 16 races including the 1994 Florida Derby (G1) and Hutcheson Stakes (G2). In total, the Florida-bred son of Great Above won six Grade 1 races.

Honey Fox: A multiple graded-stakes winner, Honey Fox won 13 races. The Florida-bred daughter of Minnesota Mac won five consecutive starts in 1980-81 including Gulfstream's Suwannee River and Orchid (G3). She also won Hialeah's Black Helen (G2) and Columbiana in 1982.

Hurricane Bertie: First run in 2005, the Hurricane Bertie is named after Richard Bertram and Elaine Klein's multiple stakes winner who was victorious in Gulfstream's 2000 First Lady (G3) and the Princess Rooney (G3), then run at Calder.

Hutcheson: First run in 1954, the race was named after William Levi Hutcheson, a member of the Gulfstream Park advisory board and nationally known labor leader.

Inside Information: Named after the Ogden Mills Phipps homebred daughter of Private Account who was 1995 champion older mare. Inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2008, she won four graded stakes and Gulfstream's 1994 Bonnie Miss (G2).

THE PEOPLE, PLACES AND HORSES BEHIND GULFSTREAM PARK'S STAKES RACES (CON'T)

Janus: Named after the Roman god of beginnings and transitions. The turf sprint for 3-year-olds and up is run near the end of the calendar year.

Kitten's Joy: Ken and Sarah Ramsey's homebred son of El Prado was 2004 champion grass horse and won Gulfstream's 2004 Palm Beach Stakes (G3).

Ladies Turf Sprint: For fillies and mares, 4-year-olds and up, at five furlongs on the turf.

Mac Diarmida: The 1978 grass champion, Mac Diarmida won 12 of 16 starts for trainer Scotty Schulhofer including the Washington D.C. International (G1) and Gulfstream's 1978 Golden Grass Stakes.

Melody of Colors: A Florida-bred daughter of Concorde's Tune, the Tim Hills-trained mare won nine races including Gulfstream's 2004 Bob Slater.

Mr. Prospector: The achievements of the record-setting sprinter as a sire, broodmare sire and sire of sires is unparalleled. He sired 181 stakes winners, including 46 Grade 1 winners.

Mucho Macho Man: Trained by South Florida's Kathy Ritvo, Mucho Macho Man gained a huge following of fans, including the Village People. Winner of the 2013 Breeders' Cup Classic (G1), the son of Macho Uno won nine of 25 starts, including the Gulfstream Park Handicap (G2), and $5.6 million. It's the first 3-year-old race of the year for contenders pointing toward the spring classics.

Orchid: First run in 1954 as a sprint, the Orchid has become one of the featured turf events on Florida Derby Day for fillies and mares. The orchid is the traditional blanket of flowers draped over the winner of the Florida Derby (G1).

Pan American: Inaugurated in 1962 to attract older turf runners from North and South America, the race day also featured Latin festivities. Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott has saddled six winners, including consecutive victories with Fraise in 1993-94.

Pegasus World Cup Invitational: Created in 2017, the Pegasus World Cup Invitational (formerly the Donn Handicap) has become one of the world's major racing and social events, hosting celebrities and the world's greatest horses and horsemen. The race is named after the 110-foot statue 'Pegasus and Dragon,' located at Gulfstream Park. It is the world's largest equine statue.

Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational: Created in 2019, the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational (formerly the Gulfstream Park Turf) has become one of the top turf events in the world, attracting horses from Japan, United Kingdom, South America and France.

Pegasus Filly & Mare Turf Invitational: Created in 2022, the Pegasus Filly & Mare Turf (formerly the Marshua's River) completes the trifecta of races that make up Pegasus World Cup Day.

Pulpit: Claiborne Farm's son of A.P. Indy was undefeated in his first three races at Gulfstream during the 1997 season before finishing second in the Florida Derby (G1). The colt was injured and retired after finishing fourth in the Kentucky Derby (G1).

Rampart: First run in 1976, the mile event for fillies and mares is named after the multiple stakes winner whose victories include the 1948 Gulfstream Park Handicap over heavily favored Armed.

Sand Springs: Honors the nine-time career winner of five graded-stakes including Gulfstream's 2005 Honey Fox (G3) and $1.27 million in purse earnings from 27 starts.

Royal Delta: Owned by Besilu Stables and trained by Bill Mott, Royal Delta was 2011 champion 3-year-old filly, and 2012 and 2013 champion older mare. She won 12 of 22 starts, including Gulfstream's 2013 Sabin (G3).

Sand Springs: Honors the nine-time career winner of five graded-stakes including Gulfstream's 2005 Honey Fox (G3) and $1.27 million in purse earnings from 27 starts.

Sanibel Island: Named after the barrier island in Lee County on Florida's West Coast.

Silks Run: Named after the main road that takes visitors through The Village at Gulfstream Park.

Sugar Swirl: In 2008 this daughter of Touch Gold won three consecutive stakes at Gulfstream - the First Lady (G3), Hurricane Bertie (G2) and Shirley Jones (G2). The filly won 10 of 23 starts.

Sunshine Classic: Originally part of a series of races in 2003 named the Sunshine Millions for horses bred in Florida or California. The afternoon of races is now strictly for Florida-breds and include the Classic, Filly & Mare Turf, Sprint and Turf.

Suwannee River: Named after the Stephen Foster song which became the Florida state anthem. The race for fillies and mares celebrates its 79th running during the 2025-2026 meet, and is a prep for the Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf (G2).

Swale: The 1984 Kentucky Derby (G1) winner and champion 3-year-old colt, Swale was trained by Hall of Famer Woody Stephens and won Gulfstream's '84 Hutcheson (G3) and Florida Derby (G1).

Sweetest Chant: Trained by Joe Bollero, Sweetest Chant wintered three years at Gulfstream winning the 1981 Rampart and 1982 Orchid Handicap (G2).

Texas Glitter: A Florida-bred son of Glitterman, Texas Glitter was a multiple graded-stakes winner. His 11 victories included Gulfstream's 1999 Spectacular Bid (G3) and 2002 Yankee Affair.

The Very One: This daughter of One For All won 22 of 71 starts with eight graded stakes wins including the Santa Barbara (G1). She also traveled to Tokyo in 1981 and finished third in the Japan Cup (G1).

Tropical Park Derby: Named after old Tropical Park Race Track in Miami, which opened in 1931. It was first run at Calder Race Course in 1976 and served as a prep race for the spring classics. Winners have included Mecke, Kitten's Joy and Colonel Liam.

Tropical Park Oaks: Named after old Tropical Park Race Track in Miami, which opened in 1931. The race is for 3-year-old fillies.

Via Borghese: This daughter of Seattle Dancer won half of her 22 starts for trainer Angel Penna Jr., including Gulfstream's 1993 Suwannee River (G3) and Saratoga's 1994 Diana (G2).

Wait a While: A multiple Grade 1 winner owned by Arindel. The daughter of Maria's Mon won 12 of 24 starts including Gulfstream's 2006 Davona Dale (G2) and 2007 Honey Fox (G3).

William L. McKnight: Named after the American businessman and philanthropist who owned Tartan Farms and helped establish the Florida Thoroughbred breeding industry. Champions Dr. Fager and Ta Wee both carried the Tartan silks.

2025 winner Tappan Street

CURLIN
FLORIDA DERBY

The history of the Florida Derby (G1) is colored in champions – an illuminating collage of the sport's greatest stars spanning more than seven decades and racing from black-and-white to Technicolor.

The Florida Derby turns 74 years old this year, and few races, if any, have had the impact on the sport's fabled Triple Crown as Gulfstream Park's signature 1 1/8-mile Grade 1 event.

Look through the old, faded charts; watch the sepia and color videos play across your computer screen; and witness many of the greatest 3-year-olds of the past six decades – Hall of Fame horses like Spectacular Bid, Alydar, Holy Bull, Northern Dancer, Nashua and Tim Tam.

Inaugurated in 1952, when Sky Ship won over Handsome Teddy by a head to take down the $17,650 winner's share of a $24,750 purse, the Florida Derby established itself as a premier prep for the Spring Classics the very next year when Money Broker followed up a victory in the $146,250 event with a triumph in the Kentucky Derby (G1). Steeped in tradition, the Florida Derby's relevance has endured, flourishing as a most effective steppingstone to Kentucky Derby and Triple Crown success.

In the first 74 runnings of the Florida Derby, 47 starters have gone on to win a remarkable 63 Triple Crown events. There have been 26 Kentucky Derby winners, 19 Preakness (G1) winners and 18 Belmont (G1) winners.

That list of 47 also includes 15 Florida Derby starters who went on to win two-thirds of the Triple Crown. They are: Sovereignty (2025), Big Brown (2009), Thunder Gulch (1995), Hansel (1991), Swale (1984), Pleasant Colony (1981), Spectacular Bid (1979), Little Current (1974), Forward Pass (1968), Kauai King (1966), Northern Dancer (1964), Carry Back (1961), Tim Tam (1958), Needles (1956) and Nashua (1955). With the exception of Sovereignty, Kauai King, Little Current, Pleasant Colony and Hansel, all of the above were victorious in the Florida Derby.

WinStar Farm, CHC Inc. and Cold Press Racing's Tappan Street, making just his third career start, registered a professional 1 1/4-length victory in 2025 to give jockey Luis Saez his second Florida Derby win following Maximum Security in 2019, and trainer Brad Cox his first.

Todd Pletcher saddled Fierceness for a record 13 1/2-length victory in 2024, giving the Hall of Fame trainer a record eighth success in Gulfstream's historic Triple Crown prep. Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez extended his record for most Florida Derby wins to six aboard Fierceness. Pletcher saddled Forte for a victory in the 2023 Florida Derby a length ahead of Mage. While Forte didn't run in the Kentucky Derby the Gustavo Delgado-trained Florida Derby runner-up went on to capture the first leg of the Triple Crown.

The Florida Derby continued its storied tradition as the ultimate Triple Crown prep in 2020 against very long odds. The outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, which forced the closure of racetracks throughout the country, placed the Florida Derby in jeopardy, but due to the development of protocols in close association with the city of Hallandale Beach, county and state governments, and public health officials, racing continued at Gulfstream Park and the track's signature stakes for 3-year-olds was renewed.

Although there were no fans in attendance, Tiz the Law put on a spectacular show for those watching the live stream on gulfstreampark.com or on wagering platforms such as Xpressbet.com and 1/STbet.com March 28. Sackatoga Stable's son of 2014 Florida Derby winner Constitution, the 7-5 favorite who had won the Holy Bull (G3) by three lengths at Gulfstream four weeks earlier, scored a dominating 4 1/2-length victory to establish himself as a prime Triple Crown candidate.

With the Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes postponed until Sept. 5 and Oct. 3, respectively, the Barclay Tagg-trained N.Y. bred colt went on to capture the June 20 Belmont Stakes (G1), becoming the 61st Florida Derby starter to capture a Triple Crown race. Tiz the Law went on to win the Travers (G1) at Saratoga before finishing second behind Authentic in the Kentucky Derby.

Maximum Security, a dominating 3 1/2-length winner in 2019, also cemented the Florida Derby's standing as the premier Triple Crown prep when he prevailed by 1 3/4 lengths in the Kentucky Derby, only to be denied the victory by a stewards' controversial disqualification to 17th.

Audible, the 2018 Florida Derby winner, finished third at Churchill Down in a quest to become the third straight winner to capture the Run for the Roses.

Won by Always Dreaming and Nyquist in 2016 and 2017, the Florida Derby's history became richer and richer. The Todd Pletcher-trained Always Dreaming scored a dominating five-length victory at Gulfstream before venturing to Churchill Downs to capture the Kentucky Derby by 2 3/4 lengths. Always Dreaming gave Pletcher his third success in the Florida Derby, having saddled Constitution and Materiality for victories in the 2014-2015, respectively. Pletcher added to his impressive personal record in 2018 by saddling Audible for his fifth success Florida Derby success.

Nyquist was shipped from Southern California for a dazzling Florida Derby victory that set up the Doug O'Neill-trained colt for success in the 2016 Kentucky Derby. The 2015 Eclipse Award-winning juvenile maintained his perfect race record in the Florida Derby, scoring by a comfortable 3 1/4-length triumph to earn a winner's purse of $1,589,000, including a $1 million bonus offered by Fasig-Tipton to a Florida Sale graduate for a victory in Gulfstream's premier prep. Five weeks later, Nyquist ran his career record to 8-0 with a commanding 1 1/4-length decision in the Kentucky Derby.

Orb added to the Florida Derby's tradition of excellence on March 30, 2013 when Stuart Janney III and Phipps Stable's homebred colt followed up his 2 1/2-length triumph in Gulfstream's signature race with a 2 1/2-length victory in the Kentucky Derby. The son of Malibu Moon, who had captured the Fountain of Youth (G2) in preparation for his Florida Derby score, provided trainer Shug McGaughey with the first Kentucky Derby success of his Hall of Fame career.

The Florida Derby's long history of providing memorable moments continued in 2011 when, for only the second time in Derby history, an owner and trainer completed back-to-back victories in the prestigious event. After winning the 2010 Florida Derby with Ice Box, who rallied from last in an 11-horse field to win by a nose, owner Robert V. LaPenta and Hall of Fame trainer Nick Zito returned to the winner's circle in 2011 with Dialed In, who rallied from last in an eight-horse field to win by a head over Shackelford. Ice Box went on to finish second in the 2010 Kentucky Derby, while Dialed In would finish fourth in the Preakness behind race winner Shackelford.

In 2009, Quality Road drove to victories in both the Florida Derby and Fountain of Youth. Although foot problems kept him from competing in the Triple Crown, Quality Road returned to Gulfstream for his 4-year-old season to set a track record while winning the Grade I Donn Handicap by 12 1/2 lengths on his way to multiple Grade I victories through the course of the year. Big Brown was the star of the 2008 winter and spring racing season. The Richard Dutrow-trained colt drew off to win the Florida Derby by five lengths. Big Brown was poised to become the first Triple Crown winner since Affirmed in 1978 when he reached New York and the Belmont Stakes, but the colt never fired in the Belmont and was upset by Da' Tara, a ninth-place finisher in the Florida Derby.

The world was captivated by the gallant, ill-fated Barbaro in 2006, with victories in the Holy Bull and Florida Derby before running away to victory in the Kentucky Derby by 6 1/2 lengths.

In 2003, Empire Maker set a record for the largest margin of victory in the Florida Derby when winning by 9 3/4 lengths. The Bobby Frankel-trained colt was beaten in the Kentucky Derby by Funny Cide (fifth in the Holy Bull) but returned five weeks later to beat Funny Cide in the Belmont.

Monarchos, a four-length winner in the 2001 Florida Derby, went on to win the Kentucky Derby while Invisible Ink, third in the Florida Derby, finished second in Kentucky. A year earlier, 89-year-old South Florida trainer Harold Rose received a thunderous applause as he welcomed Hal's Hope to the winner's circle following his victory in the 2000 Florida Derby.

The 1996 Preakness proved to be a tour de force for Florida Derby starters. Louis Quatorze won the Preakness by 3 1/2 lengths over second-place finisher Skip Away and third-place finisher Editor's Note. The trio had finished fourth, third and second, respectively, in the Florida Derby won by Unbridled's Song. Three weeks later, Editor's Note would beat Skip Away by a length in the Belmont.

Thunder Gulch was the toast of racing in 1995 after winning the Fountain of Youth and Florida Derby before winning the Kentucky Derby by 2 1/2 lengths. Thunder Gulch would go on to finish third in the Preakness before rebounding to win the Belmont. Oliver's Twist, fifth in the 1995 Florida Derby, was second in the Preakness, while Star Standard, ninth in the Florida Derby, finished second in the Belmont.

Who can forget 92-year-old Frances Genter holding tightly onto trainer Carl Nafzger's arm as Unbridled drove down the stretch to win the 1990 Florida Derby and then recreating the touching scene at Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May?

From 1979 through 1986, a parade of horses came through Florida before making their impact on the classics. Snow Chief, who shipped from California to win the 1986 Florida Derby, disappointed in the Kentucky Derby but rebounded with a victory in the Preakness. In 1984, Swale captured the Florida Derby and then won the Kentucky Derby and Belmont. Pleasant Colony finished fifth in the 1981 Florida Derby but won the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

The 1 1/8-mile event has also served as a starting point for older champions. Three-time Horse of the Year Forego (1974-76) finished second in the 1973 Florida Derby, before being named Horse of the Year in 1997; Skip Away, who finished third in the 1996 Florida Derby, went on to win the 1998 Horse of the Year title. And after finishing fourth in the 1964 Florida Derby, Roman Brother went on to earn Horse of the Year honors in 1965. Two Florida Derby winners have also gone on to win the Breeders' Cup Classic. Unbridled won both the Florida Derby and Classic in 1990; Proud Truth captured both races in 1985; and 2022 Florida Derby hero White Abarrio went on to win the 2023 Classic.

TAPPAN STREET TURNS BACK FUTURE DERBY, BELMONT WINNER SOVEREIGNTY IN FLORIDA DERBY

WinStar Farm, CHC Inc. and Cold Press Racing's Tappan Street made a five-wide sweep on the final turn, drew away from leader Neoequos and held off a late run from Sovereignty to register a professional 1 ¼-length victory in the $1.2 million Curlin Florida Derby (G1) presented by Hill 'n' Dale Farms at Xalapa.

Ridden by Luis Saez for trainer Brad Cox, Tappan Street was a debut winner at Gulfstream in December before finishing second as the favorite in the Feb. 1 Holy Bull (G3). Cox bypassed the Coolmore Fountain of Youth (G2), won by Sovereignty, to give Tappan Street eight weeks between races.

It was the second Florida Derby win for three-time Gulfstream riding champion Saez following Maximum Security in 2019, and first for two-time Eclipse Award winner Cox. Tappan Street completed 11/8 miles over a fast main track in 1:49.27 and returned $6.80 as the 2-1 second choice in a field of 10 3-year-olds.

Tappan Street was sidelined after suffering a condylar fracture in his right foreleg training for the Kentucky Derby (G1). Sovereignty would go on to win the Kentucky Derby and Belmont (G1) after skipping the Preakness Stakes (G1).

PEGASUS
WORLD CUP 2026

Pegasus World Cup

Championship Invitational Series

The Stronach Group's commitment to modernizing and elevating the Thoroughbred sport for horse owners and the next generation of fans will once again be on full display at Gulfstream Park January 25 with the eighth running of the $4.5 million Pegasus World Cup Championship Invitational Series.

The Pegasus World Cup Invitational (G1) established a model of success over the years, combining sport with entertainment in a spectacular event showcasing music and entertainment, incredible VIP and guest experiences, exceptional food and fashion and, of course, one of the most lucrative racing opportunities in the Thoroughbred industry.

The Pegasus World Cup Championship Invitational Series again presents the $3 million Pegasus World Cup Invitational and the $1 million Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational (G1), and in 2022 introduced the $500,000 Pegasus Filly & Mare Turf (G2) for older females going 1 1/16 miles – as well as world-class entertainment, dining and guest amenities.

The Pegasus World Cup Invitational, a 1 1/8-mile race on the main track for older horses, generated a single-day wagering record (other than Breeders' Cup days) at Gulfstream in 2018 with a $41.9 million handle. The addition of the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational, a 1 3/16-mile turf race for older horses, in 2019 served only to inject even more excitement into the festivities.

Last season, National Treasure held off Senior Buscador the length of the stretch and held on for a popular neck victory to give Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert his third Pegasus World Cup triumph following Arrogate (2017) and Mucho Gusto (2020). Grammy Award-winning DJ and producer Calvin Harris headlined the post-race entertainment. In 2023, Bruce Lunsford's Art Collector sprung a 15-1 upset for Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott's first Pegasus win. CHC Inc. and WinStar Farm's Life Is Good was a popular winner over Knicks Go in 2022 to complete a sweep for Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher following Colonel Liam's score in the Pegasus Turf.

Korea Racing Authority's Maryland-bred Knicks Go extended his win streak to four races with a front-running 2 3/4 length triumph in 2021 for Eclipse Award-winning trainer Brad Cox. HRH Prince Faisal Bin Khaled's Mucho Gusto rolled to a commanding 4 1/2-length victory in 2020, making Hall of Famer Bob Baffert the first trainer to win two World Cups. The post-race entertainment was headlined by Grammy Award-winning hip-hop artists Nelly and T-Pain.

In 2019, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Warren's City of Light put an exclamation point on his career with a powerful 5 3/4-length triumph over a stellar field that included Pacific Classic, Awesome Again and Breeders' Cup Classic winner Accelerate; 2018 Florida Derby and Holy Bull winner Audible; Preakness runner-up Bravazo; $5.5 million earner Gunnevera; and Grade 1 winner Seeking the Soul.

Hip hop icon Snoop Dogg and Golden Globe-winning DJ Mark Ronson led the entertainment experience. The second renewal saw 2017 Horse of the Year Gun Runner conclude a remarkable career with a dominating 2 1/2-length victory over West Coast in the $16 million Pegasus World Cup for Winchell Thoroughbreds LLC and Three Chimneys Farm. Ridden by Florent Geroux, the Steve Asmussen-trained 5-year-old son of Candy Ride pressed pacesetter Collected before taking control of the race with a half-mile to go and drawing away to the finish. Daylong festivities surrounding the Pegasus World Cup were highlighted by a concert featuring rappers Post Malone and Ludacris.

In the inaugural Pegasus World Cup in 2017, Arrogate, the world's No. 1-ranked horse, dominated 11 rivals, including 2016 Horse of the Year California Chrome, for Juddmonte Farm. The Bob Baffert-trained Arrogate scored by 4 1/2 lengths under jockey Mike Smith in the race that carried a record $12 million purse.

PEGASUS WORLD CUP JOINS DISTINGUISHED LIST OF INNOVATIVE RACES

The Pegasus World Cup Championship Invitational Series has established itself as one of the most ground-breaking races and series developed the last 70 years in Thoroughbred racing.

Many, including the Breeders' Cup, Dubai World Cup, Arlington Million, Japan Cup, and the Hong Kong International races, remain among the most important fixtures in the world and continue to flourish.

WASHINGTON D.C. INTERNATIONAL

There had been other attempts at staging international races in the United States, but it became much more feasible with improvements in airline travel to ship horses. Maryland businessman Morris Schapiro purchased Laurel Race Course in 1950 and made his son, John, the track president. After making upgrades at the track, now called Laurel Park, John Schapiro announced in 1952 that the track would host the new Washington D.C. International, at 1 1/2 miles on turf, the following year.

Carrying a purse of $50,000, the Washington D. C. International was won in 1953 by British-based Wilwyn. The inaugural race had a field of seven horses from four countries. Within a few years, horses owned by Queen Elizabeth II and Sir Winston Churchill competed.

The race quickly grew in stature, often decided seasonal titles and its list of winners was a who's who of turf stars through parts of five decades: Hall of Famers Kelso, Fort Marcy, Dahlia and All Along. Champion Paradise Creek won the final running of the D. C. International in 1994.

MARLBORO CUP

The original plan was for a $250,000 match race in September 1973 between the Meadow Stable stars, future Hall of Famers Secretariat and Riva Ridge, at Belmont Park. That showdown of horses owned by the Chenery family, trained by Lucien Laurin and sponsored by the Phillip Morris tobacco company was not appealing to the public. It was changed to an invitational that had a high-quality field of seven, including Onion, who had just upset Triple Crown winner Secretariat in the Whitney at Saratoga; Hall of Famer Cougar II; and Canadian champ and Horse of the Year Kennedy Road.

In front of a crowd of 48,023, Secretariat easily beat Riva Ridge and set a world record of 1:45 2/5 for 1 1/8 miles.

The Marlboro Cup became part of Belmont's Fall Championship Series and was won by the likes of Forego, Seattle Slew, Spectacular Bid and Slew o' Gold. It was last run in 1987.

ARLINGTON MILLION

In 1980, when Arlington Park president Joe Joyce conceived the idea of a major stakes on the turf to give his track a marquee race, the largest purse in America was the $500,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup in New York. Joyce doubled the Gold Cup purse - producing the first $1 million race for Thoroughbreds in the U.S.

Not only was the purse huge, but the first running in 1981 featured a spectacular finish with the 6-year-old legend-in-the-works John Henry edging The Bart by a whisker. It was the 27th of 39 career victories for John Henry, who prevailed again in 1984. Among the winners are greats like Manila, Estrapade, Perrault and Gio Ponti.

BREEDERS' CUP

Owner and breeder John Gaines came up with the concept of a championship day of racing funded by breeders. It was a radical approach, but Gaines convinced other major breeders to support him and announced the Breeders' Cup in April 1982. At that point, there were two U.S. races with $1 million purses.

The landscape changed forever on Nov. 10, 1984 with the first Breeders' Cup. Led by the $3 million Classic and the $2 million Turf, the Breeders' Cup lineup had seven races, all with purses of $1 million or more. The event drew 64,254 to Hollywood Park and the four-hour telecast on NBC produced strong ratings. That success led to many changes in the racing schedule and horsemen have been pointing their best runners to the Breeders' Cup ever since.

Through the years, the Breeders' Cup has grown in size and the purses have increased. In 2016 at Santa Anita Park, the 13-race two-day program, topped by the $6 million Classic and $4 million Turf, had total purses of $28 million.

DUBAI WORLD CUP

When the Emirates Racing Association made it known on July 6, 1995 that it would stage the world's richest race, the $4 million Dubai World Cup the following March, horsemen reacted with enthusiasm. "Dubai, here I come," said Allen Paulson, owner of Horse of the Year Cigar. "How do you get there?" trainer Richard Mandella said.

Both men eventually stood in the winner's circle after the World Cup, but Paulson got there first when Cigar, ridden by Jerry Bailey, edged the Mandella-trained Soul of the Matter in the premiere running. It has become a major international event and has been won by horses from Europe, Asia, the Middle East and North America. The Dubai World Cup purse was raised to $12 million for 2019.

Pegasus World Cup

Championship Invitational Series

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE PEGASUS WORLD CUP CHAMPIONSHIP INVITATIONAL SERIES

TRAINER TODD PLETCHER

"You can tell by the crowds it's attracted, the handle it's attracted. It's something the racing world is watching. Any time you bring a huge purse like that it attracts attention in the community. It brings people to the races that could just be casual race goers. They want to show up for those marquee events. It certainly attracts a new crowd, a different crowd that you normally don't get, which is important because you want new people to go to the races."

TRAINER BOB BAFFERT

"It's a fun day. You can tell everyone in the grandstand is having fun. It's a good crowd.

Plus, [The Stronach Group's Chairman and President] Belinda [Stronach] brought in [multi-platinum recording artist] Post Malone. They had a tent and I got to hang out there.

"It's a big deal. It's an event. I think it's very important these things get off the ground."

OWNER JUSTIN ZAYAT

"The Pegasus can bring more people into the game as owners. Look at the mix of people who took spots. New owners, experienced owners, people who don't even have a horse. It's huge in terms of changing the game. I applaud The Stronach Group for their innovation and creativity. They made it intriguing. We'll see how it goes, but potentially it can turn into something huge. It can only be good for the industry. The more you give to the owners, the more gets put back into the game. It gets your juices going. It's beautiful. As an owner, I'm ecstatic."

BILL THOMASON (RETIRED PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF KEENELAND)

"What you hear around the industry is that the Pegasus has incentivized talking about extending horses' careers after the Breeders' Cup and connecting all of the racing seasons we have."

OWNER BILL GALLO

"I am a businessman who travels extensively throughout the world, and I think The Stronach Group really has it right by thinking global with a concept like the Pegasus...I just come to the track to see my horses run. I'm not the kind of guy that will sit there and bet on every race. It's not me. I just love the experience. And what better experience can a guy like me have than getting a slot in the Pegasus World Cup, which I'm not likely to ever give up. I don't think people really understand what The Stronach Group has done here. This is ingenious."

2025 Pegasus World Cup jockey Irad Ortiz Jr.

TRAINER D. WAYNE LUKAS

"I would have loved to have something like [the Pegasus] when we had all those big horses. I'm all for it."

TRAINER CHAD BROWN

"They're awfully big races, both of them are, and with huge prize money at stake. So if you have a horse good enough, you would almost have to keep him going and point toward the race. It would be really hard to sit out with one of the main contenders."

OWNER DEAN REEVES

"I think part of the whole uniqueness of the Pegasus is bringing a lot of owners and trainers, and so forth, together, who may or may not have ever gotten together. If somebody told you could have a slot in The Masters every year and all you had to do was find the golfer, you'd do it in a heartbeat. Wouldn't you?"

OWNER DAN SCHAFER

"Instantly I knew this was an opportunity for a guy like me. It came with a hefty price tag, but at the same time knowing what I knew about the industry, I could have very easily gone to a Keeneland sale and invested $500,000 to $600,000 into some yearlings, but I'd have to train them and everything else that goes with it and maybe not even sniff a big race."

TRAINER STEVE ASMUSSEN

"For Mr. Stronach, the Stronach Group, to come up with this scenario is unimaginable."

JOCKEY MIKE SMITH

"To race for this amount of money is just crazy. I never in my wildest dreams imagined we would be racing for this. It's an unbelievable opportunity for racing."

PEGASUS WORLD CUP CHAMPIONSHIP INVITATIONAL SERIES TIMELINE

May 11, 2016

The Stronach Group announced that the inaugural running of the $12 million Pegasus World Cup – then the world’s richest Thoroughbred race – would be held Saturday, Jan. 28, 2017 at Gulfstream Park.

The unique and innovative race will have 12 entrants who will pay $1 million each to buy a spot in the Pegasus World Cup starting gate. Once spots are purchased, entrants can race, lease, contract, share or sell their place in the starting gate.

All entrants will not only be competing for the world’s largest purse, but they will also share equally in 100% of the net income from pari-mutuel handle, media rights, and sponsorships from the Pegasus World Cup, according to The Stronach Group announcement.

Just a week after the Pegasus World Cup is announced, The Stronach Group announces a dozen individuals or partnerships have committed to spend $1 million for a slot in the starting gate of the inaugural Pegasus World Cup.

Trainer Bob Baffert and jockey Mike Smith are presented with their Pegasus World Cup Invitational championship rings at Santa Anita Park for their victory with Arrogate in the inaugural running of the Pegasus World Cup.

The first of its kind in Thoroughbred racing, the ring was commissioned by The Stronach Group and created by local celebrity jeweler Christopher Petrillo (also known as "Boodaddy" of Boodaddy Diamonds). The 18K yellow gold Championship Ring is inspired by the iconic Pegasus statue at Gulfstream Park and boasts over 3.5 carats of VVS round brilliant cut diamonds, valued at $50,000. Each ring was made by hand from start to finish taking over 150 hours to complete.

"I want to sincerely thank Belinda and The Stronach Group for creating the Pegasus World Cup Invitational and for helping to showcase the best horses in the world," Baffert said.

"It was a tremendous honor to win the first Pegasus and it's quite an honor to receive this ring now," Smith said. "I really want to thank Belinda and The Stronach Group for their kindness and class. Arrogate ran an incredible race that day and this ring is something I'm going to treasure every day."

Championship Invitational Series

December 15, 2019

Marking a new era in the sport of Thoroughbred racing in North America, The Stronach Group announces the Pegasus World Cup Invitational (G1) and Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational (G1) will be run free of any medications on race day and will give 2 percent of purse earnings to Thoroughbred aftercare. The medication-free format is consistent with the International Federation of Horse Racing Authorities (IFHA) standards.

"We are investing in the future of our sport by creating new opportunities for horsemen and horses to run without medication," said Belinda Stronach, Chairman and President, The Stronach Group. "The Pegasus World Cup Invitational Series has always been about innovation. The new and exciting medication-free format, along with giving back to horse care, showcases the leadership our industry is taking together to evolve beyond past achievements to create a more modern, sustainable and safer sport."
