BEST BET: Race 3 - #8 Battle of Memphis (Ire)

After a troubled trip first time out, this gelding came back with an excellent effort last time out, beaten just $\frac{3}{4}$ of a length to finish second. He gets the blinkers on today and leading rider Irad Ortiz gets the call. It looks like he also has the ability to be tactical and get a good trip in here.

LONGSHOT: Race 8 - #3 Souper Warrior

Trying the turf for the first time, this gelding is a bit of an unknown. He gets a drop in class, and they tried to get him on the grass last time out, but unfortunately the race was taken off the turf. He is out of a mare who won on turf, and who has already produced a graded stakes placed horse who was a 2-time turf winner. I think you'll get a bit of a price on this Mike Trombetta trainee.
