BEST BET: Race 12 - #1 Con Lima

She's a tricky, high energy filly, and recently seems to have found her home on turf. However, I do think it's so interesting that in Saratoga in the PG Johnson, which was her first start for trainer Todd Pletcher, this filly was not entered for turf, but rather was a main track only entrant. Clearly, Todd felt that this horse was meant for the dirt, and in fact, in her first two starts, which here at Gulfstream, both efforts were on the main track. I think she is the controlling speed in here from the inside.

LONGSHOT: RACE 6 - #6 Little Menace

This colt by Into Mischief was purchased by her current connections at the Fasig Tipton Mixed sale for $145,000 and now makes his first start for trainer Mike Maker. He is out of a mare who never won, though she did make one start on the grass. She is the sister for G1 placed Balance the Books, who was all turf. That mare's other foal is a colt named Warn, who has only had one start so far, but it was here at Gulfstream in a salty turf maiden special weight field. I think there's enough pedigree for the surface switch, and am really intrigued by this horse at a nice price.
