BEST BET: Race 7 - #4 Timewon'tletme go

This colt is taking a significant drop in class and trying to get back on track today. I think this is a good spot to do it, and it looks like he could be the controlling speed in here. Strong gate rider Edgard Zayas is aboard. Trainer Kathleen O'Connell has had a strong Championship Meet overall, and I think this one is a big player in here on the drop in class.

LONGSHOT: RACE 10 - #4 Impressive One

Hoping to wrap up the day with a big price, this filly has a pedigree to suggest that she'll like a switch to the grass. She is by Flintshire, and has a sibling that won twice on grass. The blinkers go on for her first start with trainer Ian Wilkes, and while the debut race in December was certainly not pretty, I like the fact that she has a start under belt and is now dropping from maiden special weight company to maiden claiming.
