

JASON BLEWITT'S

Race Analysis

Sunday, October 6, 2019

RACE 1: 8 – 3 – 1 – 7

RACE 2: 6 – 5 – 2 – 8

RACE 3: 1 – 9 – 4 – 6

RACE 4: 2 – 7 – 3 – 8

RACE 5: 3 – 1 – 5 – 2

RACE 6: 1 – 3 – 7 – 5

RACE 7: 4 – 3 – 7 – 2

RACE 8: 4 – 2 – 5 – 6

RACE 9: 5 – 4 – 9 – 7

Gulfstream Park West Day 5
Post Time: 1 p.m. ET

Mega Key Race

Todd Pletcher, the all-time leading trainer at Gulfstream Park and first ballot Hall of Famer, has been popping up recently in the South Florida entries. Welcome back, TAP! What's been a slow trickle in the SoFla ship-in department will eventually turn into a tidal wave. Although the calendar says it's the first week of October, Pletcher is ready to run Mochaccino in Sunday's 5th race at Gulfstream Park West. This Florida-bred Uncaptured filly spent her summer at the Jersey Shore while stabled on the Monmouth Park backstretch but appears ready for business as she faces six foes in the fifth, a $38,000 Florida-bred maiden special weight at six furlongs. To say that Mochaccino is exiting a "live" last-out field would be a massive understatement, maybe the biggest of the autumn racing season at GPW. Indeed, this filly caught perhaps the toughest Monmouth Park cast of two-year-old fillies over the summer back on August 10th when she finished fifth of seven in her career debut. Since then, the top four finishers have returned to win with Colby scoring in a Charles Town stakes race, My Gift From Above and Cofactor both won Monmouth Park maiden specials while fourth-place finisher, Firenze Freedom, shipped to Belmont Park for a maiden victory. Mochaccino has worked four times since that debut 57 days ago – my trip note reads as: "chased inside, tired by far turn" – and will likely improve in her second start. Classy Beast, by The Big Beast, debuts for trainer David Fawkes. She's the third foal from a dam that was a two-year-old winner on dirt. The Big Beast has nine juveniles winners at

GULFSTREAMPARK.com